General conditions for participants

Introduction

Participation in an exhibition offers unique opportunities for businesses and individuals to showcase their products, services, or concepts. To ensure a smooth and successful event, all participants are required to adhere to the following general conditions.

1. Registration and Eligibility

- All participants must complete the official registration process by the 30th March- 3:00pm. All registration must include proof of payment.
- Eligibility criteria may include business type, industry relevance, or other requirements as outlined by the organisers.
- Any changes to registration details must be promptly communicated to the organisers.

2. Allocation of Exhibition Space

- Exhibition space will be assigned by the organisers based on availability, participant requirements, and event layout per areas.
- Subletting or transferring allocated space to another party is strictly prohibited unless approved by the organisers.
- Participants must adhere to the dimensions and boundaries of their allocated area.

3. Setup and Dismantling

- Setup must occur within the designated time frame prior to the exhibition opening.
- Dismantling and removal of exhibits should be completed within the time allocated after the event closes.

- Participants are responsible for the security and safety of their exhibits during setup and dismantling.

4. Conduct During the Exhibition

- Participants must maintain professional behaviour and treat all visitors, staff, and fellow exhibitors with respect.
- Displays must not obstruct walkways, emergency exits, or neighbouring exhibits.
- Distribution of promotional materials is permitted only within the allocated space.
- Participants must abide to traffic rules according to Police instructions
- Maintain a good level of cleanliness at all times
- No hazardous materials should be used without prior knowledge of the organising committee and safety procedures adherence

5. Health and Safety

- All exhibits and activities must comply with local health and safety regulations.
- Emergency procedures, including fire evacuation plans, must be followed at all times.
- Electrical installations or equipment must be approved by the organisers and meet safety standards.
- All exhibits must have a basic medical kit.

6. Insurance and Liability

- Participants are strongly advised to arrange appropriate insurance for their exhibits and staff.
- The organisers are NOT liable for any damage, loss, or injury occurring during the exhibition, except in cases of proven negligence.
- Any damage caused to the venue or property by a participant must be reported and may be subject to compensation.

7. Compliance and Penalties

- Failure to comply with these general conditions may result in removal from the exhibition without refund.
- The organisers reserve the right to amend conditions as necessary and will communicate any changes to participants.
- Serious breaches may lead to exclusion from future events.

8. Intellectual Property/Data Protection

- Participant information will be handled in accordance with applicable data/IP protection laws.
- Personal data may be used for event communications, promotions, and administrative purposes.

Conclusion

Adhering to these general conditions is essential for creating a positive and productive exhibition experience for all involved. Participants are encouraged to contact the organisers with any questions or for further clarification on specific rules and requirements.
